

TENANT SIGN RIGHTS:

If two tenants occupy the building, then each tenant will have rights to a sign envelope on the top floor consistent with the tenant's side of the building (A or B, C or D).

If three tenants occupy the building, then each tenant will have rights to a sign envelope on the top floor consistent with the tenant's side of the building. Two signs on one side of the stairwell and one sign on the other (A, B, C, D).

If four tenants occupy the building, then each tenant will have rights to a sign envelope on the top floor consistent with the tenant's side of the building. The tenants on the ground floor will have rights to (A) and (D) while the top floor tenants will have rights to (B) and (C).

If five tenants occupy the building, then four tenants will have rights to a sign envelope on the top floor consistent with the tenant's side of the building. The smallest sized tenant on the ground floor will have rights to a sign envelope on the ground floor (E,F,G,H) most adjacent to their suite.

If six or more tenants occupy the building, then four of the tenants (top floor tenants) will have rights to a sign envelope on the top floor (A,B,C,D) consistent with the tenant's side of the building. The bottom floor tenants will have rights to the remainder sign envelopes (E,F,G, H) consistent with the tenant's side of the building.